

Instruction: Essay Type (300 to 500 words for each number)

1. Please read Romans 14:17-19. What personal insights can you get from this reading? Explain.

The verses found in Romans 14:17-19 provide simple yet profound lessons for leading a good Christian life. They remind us that Christianity is not about complicated rules or rituals but about drawing closer to God, performing acts of kindness, and nurturing a sense of unity within the Christian community.

First and foremost, these verses highlight that being a Christian is not centered on what we eat or drink but rather on the inner connection we develop with God. The core of Christianity lies in having a heart filled with goodness, maintaining a spirit of peace, and experiencing the joy that the Holy Spirit brings.

Furthermore, these verses stress the significance of serving Christ with authenticity. When we genuinely live out our faith, we earn not only the favor of God but also the respect of others. In simpler terms, it means being honest about our beliefs and not pretending to be something we are not. By practicing a genuine faith, we gain the respect of both God and people.

In addition, these verses encourage us to actively pursue peace and engage in the betterment of our fellow believers within the Church. This involves avoiding actions that could lead to discord or harm within our Christian family. Instead, our goal should be to foster an atmosphere of support and encouragement, where everyone can experience personal growth and spiritual development.

In straightforward words, these verses serve as a practical guide for leading a fulfilling Christian life. We are urged to focus on strengthening our relationship with God, living out our faith sincerely, and working towards a sense of unity, love, and growth within our church community. By adhering to these principles, we become better Christians and contribute to the creation of a joyful and harmonious environment where everyone has the opportunity to mature and flourish in their faith.

In essence, Romans 14:17-19 provides a roadmap for living out one's Christian faith, emphasizing the fundamental values of goodness, peace, and joy, while promoting the importance of authentic faith, unity, and mutual growth within the Christian community.

2. What is your personal concept of God? Explain

My Idea of God: A Simple Understanding

I think of God as a special feeling. It's like feeling really, really good and full of love. Imagine the happiest and most loving feeling you've ever had – that's a bit like God. This feeling makes me feel safe and happy.

God is like a big hug for the whole world. It's a warm and friendly presence that cares about all of us, no matter what we look like or what we do. God's love is like a cozy blanket that covers everything.

I believe God is the boss of everything, like the one who made the whole world. It's like the person who paints a beautiful picture or writes a fantastic story. God is the artist of life and nature.

I also think God is really smart. It's like having a wise friend who helps you make good choices. When I'm not sure what to do, I think about what God would want me to do, and it usually helps me make the right decision.

Sometimes, I feel God when I'm in a peaceful place, like a quiet forest or at the beach, and I can see how amazing the world is. I know God is there, making everything work.

God is like a big family, and we're all a part of it. We should be kind and loving to each other because that's what God would want. It's like being nice to your friends and family. We all belong to God's family, and we should take care of each other.

In simple words, God is like the best feeling of love, the artist of everything, a smart friend, and a warm hug for the world. It's like being in a big, loving family where we're all supposed to be kind and take care of each other